AGENDA ITEM Megan Robins Certificate of Appreciation for her service on the Police Chief Advisory Committee

BACKGROUND Megan Robins is resigning her position as a member of the Police Chief Advisory Committee (PCAC). Megan is an original member of the committee and helped found the committee in January of 2017. She originally committed to a year of service and has served us for four years. I appreciate the guidance she has provided over the years to help strengthen IPD's relationship with the citizens we serve.

We are presenting her with a thank you letter and certificate of appreciation.

Dear Megan

I would like to thank you for the service you have provided our community as a founding member of the Police Chief Advisory Committee. From the start you have been a faithful member of the committee and have truly served as a voice of the citizens of Independence. I consider you to be a core member of the founding group and a key to the success of the committee. It is my belief that your guidance has helped the police department foster a stronger relationship with the community and that has been very meaningful to me.

I am sad to see you go but I am anxious to hear about the successes you find as you continue to serve our community. Be sure to keep in touch!

Sincerely,

Jerry Harrison
Chief of Police
